Library Rules.

Each inmate entitled to draw books from the library will be supplied with a card inscribed with his name and number. If you are moved from one cell to another, take this catalogue, your card and your library book with you, for you will be held responsible for the care of these.

Selection of Books.

Select from the catalogue not more than five books that you prefer to read.

The class numbers are found at the right of each column, followed by the author's initial and number. Fiction is ordered by the author's initial and number and first letter of title.

If you want "Harper's Story Book," by Jacob Abbott, write "A 11 h" on your card; if you want "Dictionary of American Authors," by O. T. Adams, write "000 A 28" on your card.

Care of Books.

A record of the condition of each book is kept by the Librarian. You will be held responsible for all books issued to you, and return of the same in as good condition as when you received them.

Books and catalogues must not be marked or written in, torn, defaced or injured in any way, destroyed, loaned, or passed out of your cell.

Exchange of Books.

Books may not be kept longer than two weeks without special permission.

On exchange days cards must be placed in the book which you have read; the Librarian then exchanges the book for one which you desire.

Do not leave book in the bars of door, as it may be purloined, or injured by falling.

Lost library cards will be replaced upon the order of the Superintendent or Assistant Superintendent.

Penalties.

Any one found guilty of violating any of the above rule will be reported to the Superintendent, also deprived of the use of the library until obedience can be secured.

Approved : GEO. M. TEDRICK,
Supt. of Schools and Librarian.
E. E. MARSHALL,
General Superintendent.
